Folks,

Look people, knock it off. 36 posts and I haven't even been able to get to my breakfast yet!

I'm willing to give up my morning paper (it is pretty much worthless now anyway), and I can grab a cup of coffee on my way to work, but I need my breakfast. Give me a break!

Maybe it is my imagination, but ever since Reimar has come back volume here has tripled. ;-)

Cheers,

David

P.S. Maybe it's just all that dictionary work that is slowing me down this morning.

Hi David,

I found that this newsgroup does not work. Whatever I try, it just crashes. When I type the post, it makes some error message so I think there is something wrong with the Internet.

Maybe you have an idea of what is wrong? I can send you everything if you want.

This is even better than your computer haiku! :-)

Cheers,

David

I think David has already written an article about that:

And another reason why this newsgroup is way better than TV :-)
