No one... this is an unmoderated group. If you're troubled by spam, find a usenet provider that filters it out.

I use news.individual.net (10 euro/year) and see essentially no spam.

Should have checked this before I posted that last note... You appear to be using google groups which is among the WORST usenet providers out there...

what spam? (this post, maybe? :o)

I now use the newsfeed LiamG mentioned a while back: news.aioe.org. I read news via thunderbird using that newsfeed and I haven't seen any spam yet. Even the NOAA newsfeed let some of that stuff through.

Google groups are useless for reading newsgroups. I'm not trying to diss google - it's simply a fact.

cheers,
