I saw the 2:00pm London Time presentation (6:00am for me) this morning.
Very good information, but what do we need to do to convince ITT to get you a better laptop Mark?

Are they going to publish this that we could download?

They said that it would be published, yes. I assume it will eventually show up here:
<http://www.ittvis.com/EventsTraining/RecordedWebinars.aspx>

I have misplaced the URL for downloading the example programs. Does someone have that?

Thanks,

David

So how did that backpacking trip of yours go?

Ciao,
Paolo

David! You're back!

It's mushy and probably TMI, but seeing your name in the "sender" list made the day seem a little bit bit happier....

So dish: how'd it go?

It pains me to say it, because I was desperately hoping for a different result, but I missed you guys, too. :-)

Cheers,

David

P.S. Although, let's just say, you didn't really come to mind until about day 8 or 9. :-)

Welcome back, David. I missed you here.

You can download the webinar files from:

<http://bit.ly/IDL-webinar-files>

Look for the "Diving Deeper into IDL Graphics" heading.
