Subject: Problem with Newsgroup?

Folks,

I have gotten several e-mails today complaining that they can't post to the newsgroup. They are blaming me for being the moderator.

I am NOT the moderator. In fact, as far as I know, the group doesn't have a moderator. (It's the reason I can post so many nonsense messages in one day.)

Does anyone have any idea what might be happening? Who to contact about it?

Cheers,

David

If you want a really surreal experience, I encourage you to contact your Usenet provider for information on this topic. I'm sure this is where all the high-school dropouts go to work after they get fired from McDonalds. :-(

Cheers,

David

P.S. How about you just read the FRIGGIN' E-MAIL
I sent to you 10 seconds ago!!

Sorry, someone else is going to handle this today.
The blood pressure is red-lining. :-(
