Ok, that post should have been part of the thread about transparent plots ! sorry about that Seriously!? *All* my code is in the repository. It is how I update my own files here on my machine. Are you perhaps looking at the tags, rather than at the trunk? The tags branch contains controlled releases.

The trunk branch contains the very latest of the files.

Cheers,

David
