This is on my list. (In fact, probably the start of my next book!)
But I have been revamping parts of my web page for the past couple days. I think I'm within a couple of hours of being able to move forward again. I'll see what I can come up with. It will probably be afternoon before I can get to it. Having lunch with my mother. :-)

The book is on the printer's job stack today!

Cheers,

David
