
Subject: Re: writing gif image
Posted by lefevrerjo on Sat, 29 Jul 1995 07:00:00 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Have you tried XV? It will write the snapshot in many different formats.
Randy J. Lefevre
Send e-mail to: LefevreRJo@aol.com

Subject: Re: writing gif image
Posted by cnlenz on Mon, 31 Jul 1995 07:00:00 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

>> We are looking for some way on our Sun Workstations to have the snapshot >> tool default to saving as a GIF image instead of a Sun Raster file. Does >> anyone know how to make this happen? If not, does anyone know of any >> software for our workstations (public domain or whatever) that will do >> this inplace of but similiar to the snapshot tool?? Thanks!
>>

Hi!
If you have the image in IDL, you can use the write_gif-routine. Also you can try the PD- or Sharewareprogram XV to do the snapshot and write the image as gif, tif bmp
..... and and and.

Moin Moin Christian

--

```
()=====()
//  _____/ / / / //\ Universitaet Paderborn
// / / / / // () Fachbereich 17, Informatik
// / / / / // (AG-Domik)
// / / / / // Raum: D3.247
// / / / / // Warburger Str. 100
// _____/ / / / // 33098 Paderborn
()=====() // Germany
\\ Dipl.-Inf. Christian Lenz \\
()=====() * EMail: cnlenz@uni-paderborn.de
                * VMail: +49 +5251 60-2652
                * Fax : +49 +5251 60-3515
```
