Folks,

I screwed up big time a couple days ago. I changed a couple of Coyote Library files on the flight to Australia, and then updated the Coyote Library zip file on my web page with a VERY out-of-date version of the library files. The result has been chaos the past few days. :-(

If you downloaded the Coyote Library in the past couple of days, please toss that one in the bin and try it again.

Sorry about the confusion. :-(

Cheers,

David
