Sorry, I don't know what Mike wants to do. The sentence should have read, "Mike may want to do it instead." :-)

Cheers,

Yes, these types of things would be best placed in the ticket system for IDLdoc. I made a ticket for this issue, see here:

<http://idldoc.idldev.com/ticket/78>

But I place issues that are emailed to me or posted in the newsgroup in the ticket system, if you don't want to deal with it (it's become more of a pain since I had to lock stuff down further because of Trac spam).

Thanks, Mike. I'll try filing a ticket in the future!
