I'm giving a set of live webinars on working with the IDL GRIB library on 2012 February 23. Please check our live web seminar page:

<http://www.exelisvis.com/EventsTraining/LiveWebSeminars.aspx>

for an abstract and registration details.

I'll make available for download the programs and slides that I'll use in the webinar; I'll post an announcement to my blog, idldatapoint.com, when they're ready.

I know GRIB may not be an exciting topic, but I'll try to make the webinar useful and entertaining.

Bump. I'll be presenting three live webinars on using the IDL GRIB library over the next 24-ish hours. Reg details here:

<http://www.exelisvis.com/EventsTraining/LiveWebSeminars.aspx>

and my examples and slides can be downloaded from here:

As always, heckling the presenter is encouraged.
