Not so old, only two weeks and hundred of messages, tweets, blog posts :-)

But It's hard sometime to change the way of working, so it might be a good reminder !

Hi Vincent

In my quest to find out where the Docs Center was announced, I've discovered Mark Piper's blog:

<http://idldatapoint.com/about/>

I don't follow Twitter posts, so I wouldn't have seen those announcements. However, I have been unable to find the hundreds of messages. Where do I find these?

I saw the announcement on:

- * Mark's page which you found and
- * this newsgroup

<https://groups.google.com/forum/?fromgroups=#!topic/comp.lang.idl-pvwave/1DBYzIDdn1g>

I wrote a short blurb about it too on my site

<http://michaelgalloy.com/2012/10/08/online-help-online.html>

Hope this gives you some references for future news!

Mike
