Hi:

The "http://xlr8.lpl.arizona.edu/idl_sub/lib_loc.html" document states that Ray Sterner's IDL library can be retrieved by anonymous ftp from fermi.jhuapl.edu.

I have been trying for the last 3 days, but the connection is always rejected with the "Can't set guest privileges" message.

Does somebody else face the same difficulty? Is that site particularly protected? Is the library available at another site?

Any clue that would help me getting to that library is welcome. I have a temporary IDL demo licence that runs out in 3 days time, and there are a few things in Ray's library I would like to try out.

Thanks.
