Folks,

I'm back! Retirement sucks. Hiking, photography, and camping under the stars in Colorado. What a waste!

I'm updating to the latest version of IDL and plan to immerse myself in Function Graphics. Please stay tuned!

Cheers,

David

Helder,

Whoops! I forgot to add the emoji for "American nuance." April 1st is a, uh, different sort of day in America!

Cheers,

David

P.S. I *do* miss this newsgroup every day, even though I have managed to tame my desire to check it every five minutes to something like once a week. My therapist says that's good progress in getting my life back. :-)

These are not things to fool around with. Now *I* need a therapist ;-)
