Is it possible to clip ARROWs on an image so that they lie within the bounds of the exes?   I have a complex image built up with ARROW and OPLOT, the OPLOTted lines of which can be clipped with NOCLIP=0; but ARROW doesn't seem to have this facility and some of the large arrows are dangling over the edge.

Thanks in advance for any suggestions,

Richard.