Subject: need maintainer for idl.el and idl-shell.el Posted by chase on Wed, 22 Jan 1997 08:00:00 GMT

I will be starting a new job next month where I do not expect to be using IDL. As such I will not be able to maintain idl.el and idl-shell.el. [idl.el is an IDL editing mode and idl-shell.el runs IDL as an inferior process for the Emacs editor].

If anyone is interested in taking over the maintenance of these programs please let me know. It requires knowledge of Emacs lisp and patience.

I doubt that I will have time before starting my new job to make any changes other than fixing major bugs.

Thanks,
Chris Chase
