I've had enough questions from users in my lab as to how to use xdisplay that I figured I'd write some online help files for using XDISPLAY as well as ROI_INFO. I think that I've covered everything, but if you want more info please let me know.

The URLs for these are:

<http://www.irc.chmcc.org/idl/xdisplay.html>
http://www.irc.chmcc.org/idl/roi_info.html

There are also links to these pages from my library page at

Happy IDLing!

Phil
