
Subject: Re: Unknown error

Posted by davidf on Thu, 30 Jan 1997 08:00:00 GMT

View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

Stephen Theil <beorabor@holly.colostate.edu> writes:

> I have recently written a procedure that opens and closes several > files when run. Ocassionaly, I run accross the following error:
>
> KW_MARK Too many levels deep
>
> I have seen this before when running several procedures in one session > that require the opening and reading of files. Could someone please > tell me what this means and possibly how to keep it from happening?

I've never seen this, but I am willing to bet dollars to donuts you are not closing your files correctly.

Use FREE_LUN if you use the GET_LUN procedure or keyword to get the logical unit number. Use CLOSE if you picked a logical unit number yourself. (Not good programming practice, by the way.)

David

David Fanning, Ph.D.
Fanning Software Consulting
2642 Bradbury Court, Fort Collins, CO 80521
Phone: 970-221-0438 Fax: 970-221-4762
E-Mail: davidf@dfanning.com
Coyote's Guide to IDL Programming: <http://www.dfanning.com>
