
Subject: Meteosat calibration and navigation
Posted by dean on Wed, 04 Jun 1997 07:00:00 GMT
View Forum Message <> Reply to Message

We are ingesting Meteosat-6 data via DOMSAT. I have FORTRAN code provided by EUMETSAT to read, navigate, and calibrate the images files we are ingesting. However, I would like to do this in IDL. Has anyone developed routines to read the Met-6 files, provide navigation information and calibration information and are willing to share?

I thought I ask before I start constructing IDL routines to do so.

Kelly Dean
CSU/CIRA
dean@cira.colostate.edu
