You can get IDL to do just about anything you want.
But we need more details about what you have in mind.

Is this information in the file, on the disk, are you on a UNIX system, etc.

Cheers,

David

P.S. Please, folks, we LOVE questions on this newsgroup, but take just a minute to review the questions you ask for the relevant details. Makes it MUCH easier for the folks on the other end. :-)
