<DIV>If Christians, for whatever reason, send evangelistically oriented messages to a newsgroup with a name like za.humour then they have only themselves to blame if they get back stuff that offends them. It offends me that they send their garbage out in the first place! If you really feel that we're not "grown-up" enough then perhaps you should ask yourself a) if you should be subscribing yourself, b) who made you an international policeman.</DIV>

This type of "humour" is actually offensive to a large population (we are on air world-wide, ok?) and has no place in a professional user group such as this.
Cheap shots about religious figures may constitute harassment in many legal jurisdictions around the world, when the material ends up in company or government email banks.

But it shouldnt be necessary to refer to legal restrictions - commonsense and courtesy are surely sufficient in an educated international group.
